EXTERNAL COMMUNICATION

To: B3's Market Participants – BM&FBOVESPA Segment

Re: Update to Minimum Quantities for Cancellation of Operating Error-Originated Orders for One-Day Interbank Deposit Futures (DI1) and U.S. Dollar Futures (DOL).

On May 20, 2019, B3 will change the minimum quantity parameters used to approve requests to cancel operating error-originated orders for One-Day Interbank Deposit Futures (DI1) and U.S. Dollar Futures (DOL) that are participating in theoretical quantity formation for an auction. The new minimum quantities are shown in the table below.

Contract	Contract Months	Old minimum quantity	New minimum quantity
DI1	1st through 12th	1,000 contracts	1,000 contracts
	13th through 36th	1,000 contracts	750 contracts
	Other	1,000 contracts	500 contracts
DOL	1st through 3rd	500 contracts	500 contracts
	Other	500 contracts	250 contracts

It is important to note that there will be no other changes to the rules for canceling orders that originate in operating errors. These rules can be found in the Trading Procedures Manual, available at www.b3.com.br/en_us, Regulation, Regulatory framework, Regulations and manuals, Trading, BM&FBOVESPA Segment.

Tables with the parameters used to apply the rules for canceling operating error-originated orders are available at http://www.b3.com.br/en_us, Solutions, Platforms, PUMA Trading System, For members and traders, Rules and trading parameters, Trading rules.
