Launch of the AAA DI B3 Corporate Bond Index (IDEB AAA DI B3)

Aimed at segment participants: Counter; Listed

Abstract: The Index represents the average price performance of corporate bonds with an AAA credit rating

On 06/12/2025, the AAA DI B3 Corporate Bond Index (IDEB AAA DI B3) will be launched. Its objective is to provide a benchmark that represents the average price performance of corporate bonds with a credit risk rating of AAA by the main rating agencies and remuneration composed of DI (Interbank Deposit) + Spread.

The index is a total return index and will be developed based on the reference prices calculated by B3 for corporate bonds with an issuance volume equal to or greater than R$ 300 (three hundred) million, which meet the other inclusion criteria established in the methodology.

The IDEB AAA DI B3 methodology is available on our website (Market Data and Indices >Fixed Income Indices > IDEB AAA DI B3).
