

CHANGE TO PRODUCT OR SERVICE

Change of Cross Connect services to access the Co-location trading network.

Intended for segment participants: Listed.

Summary: The current Cross Connect service will be discontinued and replaced with two new models according to network segregation: Cross Connect Order Entry and Cross Connect Market Data.

To improve the technological infrastructure used to access the trading network in the Co-location environment, B3 will update its Cross Connect service. The service, currently called Cross Connect Puma, will be discontinued and replaced with two new models according to network segregation: Cross Connect Order Entry and Cross Connect Market Data.

B3's Co-location service package will remain free of charge. Each half-rack unit, which previously guaranteed a pair of Cross Connect Puma, will now include a pair of Cross Connect Market Data and a pair of Cross Connect Order Entry.

Additional connections will follow the new service models disclosed in the B3 Co-location Commercial Policy on January 15, 2026.

Changes to the services currently offered will be implemented as of June 15, 2026.
